2019/20 HOME/EU[1] TUITION FEE LIABILITY PROCEDURE

In the event of withdrawal, interruption or restart of studies, all scheduled bursary and scholarship payments will cease with immediate effect. The table below details the fee liability, dependent upon last date of attendance/engagement, as outlined in the University's Withdrawal Procedures[2].

Tuition fee liability will be calculated at the approved rate for the registered mode of study.

Full time Foundation Year, undergraduate (including transfer to part-time), PGCE, MSc Nursing, MSc Midwifery.
Part time post 2012 undergraduate programmes

September to December start

Within the first two weeks of teaching[3]	Nil fee
From the start of the third week of teaching	25% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the Spring Term	50% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the Summer Term	100% of full tuition fee

January to March start

Within the first two weeks of the academic year	Nil fee
From the start of the third week of the academic year	25% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the Summer Term	50% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the Autumn Term	100% of full tuition fee

April to June start

Within the first two weeks of the academic year	Nil fee
From the start of the third week of the academic year	25% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the Autumn Term	50% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the Winter Term	100% of full tuition fee

July to August start

Within the first two weeks of the academic year	Nil fee
From the start of the third week of the academic year	25% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the Winter Term	50% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the Spring Term	100% of full tuition fee

[1] Students paying the international fee must contact the International Office on 01695 657122 or International@edgehill.ac.uk to discuss liability as per the International Student Fee Policy.
[2] For queries in relation to the application of these fees please contact the Academic Registrar on Academic-Registry@edgehill.ac.uk.
[3] Excludes Induction Week

Subject to previous study, undergraduate, PGCE, MSc Nursing and MSc Midwifery students may apply for a tuition fee loan via Student Finance for the time they have been in attendance at the University. Students are advised to refer to their external funding provider regulations to ensure funding will be provided to cover tuition fee liability charges.

Full time and part time postgraduate research and taught programmes (excluding PGCE)
Faculty of Education postgraduate Professional Learning

Within the first three weeks from the start of the programme	Nil fee
From the start of week four of the first term	1/3 of full tuition fee
Attendance in the second term	2/3 of full tuition fee
Attendance in the third term	Full tuition fee

Continuing (pre 2012) part-time undergraduate non-semesterised programmes

Within the first three weeks from the start of the programme	Nil fee
From the start of week four of the first term	1/3 of full tuition fee
From week four of the second term	2/3 of full tuition fee
From week four of the third term	Full tuition fee

Faculty of Health & Social Care & Medicine Professional Learning

Up to 14 days from the start of a module	Nil fee
From day 15 of the start of a module	Full tuition fee

Master of Surgery (MCh) and Master of Medicines (MMed)[4]

When the offer of a job linked to an MCh or MMed Programme is made, students have a period of 2 weeks to confirm their acceptance of both. If this conditional job offer is withdrawn for any reason, no fee will be charged.

From date of acceptance of job/place on programme until the last day of month three	50% of full tuition fee
From the start of month four	100% of full tuition fee

[4] Please contact the MCh Course Administrator at Wrightington Hospital, on 01257 256408 or email mchcourse@wwl.nhs.uk to discuss payment arrangements.

MSc Dental Implantology

From date of enrolment until week two of the programme	No fee due
Attendance from week three of registration	100% of tuition fee for Year One
Attendance from re-enrolment at the start of Year Two	100% of tuition fee for Year Two
Attendance from re-enrolment at the start of Year Three	100% of tuition fee for Year Three

Full and Part Time MRes, MPhil, PhD and Professional Doctorate programmes

Exceptional arrangements for Interruption of studies

The annual tuition fee will be reduced by the daily rate for the number of days of interruption, verified by the Graduate Board of Studies. For 2019.20 the academic calendar is 365 days.

Separate arrangements apply for interruption of study during the formal writing-up period. See Research Degree Writing-up & Assessment Fees.

Part Enrolled
For students who have had a period of part enrolment, registration will be taken from the point at which enrolment on programme was undertaken.