Summary

This document outlines how much a student should be charged in the event of withdrawal, interruption or restart of studies, based on last date of attendance/engagement. This procedure details tuition fee liability, dependant on course and mode of study.

Glossary of Terms

Bursary

a financial award made to students to support their studies; sometimes used interchangeably with 'scholarship'. For some professional programmes a bursary may be provided from external funding;

Interruption of Studies

suspension of studies;

Module

a self-contained, formally structured unit of study, with a coherent and explicit set of learning outcome and assessment criteria;

Scholarship

a payment made to support a student's education, awarded on the basis of academic or other achievement;

Semester

Either of the parts of an academic year that is divided into two for purposes of teaching and assessment (in contrast to division into terms);

Student Loans Company (SLC)

the government agency which provides funding support to students in the UK/EU for study purposes deemed eligible by Student Finance;

Term

any of the parts of an academic year that is divided into three or more for purposes of teaching and assessment (in contrast to division into semesters);

Withdrawal

the process whereby a student formally ceases registration on their programme and relationship with the University;

Writing-up Fee

a fee charged in lieu of a full time/part time annual fee when a student has completed the expected period of registration and no longer needs substantial supervision but is yet to complete their final submission.

Purpose

This procedure applies to all Home/EU¹ Edge Hill students from the time they complete their initial course enrolment until the end of their University registration and is intended to provide help and guidance about tuition fee liability.

Procedure

In the event of withdrawal, interruption or restart of studies, all scheduled bursary and scholarship payments will cease with immediate effect. The table below details the fee liability, dependent upon last date of attendance/engagement, as outlined in the University Withdrawal Procedures².

Tuition fee liability will be calculated at the approved rate for the registered mode of study.

Full time undergraduate (including transfer to part-time), Integrated Masters, PGCE, MSc Nursing, MSc Midwifery.

Part time post 2012 undergraduate programmes

Within ten working days from the course start date or completion of enrolment, whichever is the later ³	Nil fee
Attendance from the third week of teaching	25% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the second term	50% of full tuition fee
Attendance in the third term	100% of full tuition fee

Subject to previous study, FT and PT undergraduate, PGCE, MSc Nursing and MSc Midwifery students may apply for a tuition fee loan via Student Finance for the time they have been in attendance at the University. Students are advised to refer to external funding provider regulations to ensure funding will be provided to cover tuition fee liability charges.

Full-time and part-time postgraduate research and taught programmes (excluding PGCE)

Faculty of Education Professional Learning programmes

Continuing (pre 2012) part-time undergraduate non-semesterised programmes

Within ten working days from the course start date or completion of enrolment, whichever is the later	Nil fee
Attendance from the third week of teaching	1/3 of full tuition fee
Attendance in the second term	2/3 of full tuition fee
Attendance in the third term	Full tuition fee

¹ Students paying the international fee must contact the International Office on 01695 657122 to discuss liability as per the International Student Fee Policy

² Queries in relation to the application of these fees please refer to the Academic Registrar

³ Excludes Induction Week

Faculty of Health Social Care & Medicine Professional Learning modules

Within ten working days from the course start date or completion of enrolment, whichever is the later	Nil fee
Attendance from the third week of teaching	Full tuition fee

Master of Surgery (MCh) and Master of Medicines (MMed)⁴

When the offer of a job linked to an MCh or MMed Programme is made, students have a period of 2 weeks to confirm their acceptance of both. If this conditional job offer is withdrawn for any reason, no fee will be charged.

From date of acceptance of job/place on programme until the last day of month three	50% of full tuition fee
Attendance from month four	100% of full tuition fee

MSc Dental Implantology (articulation route)

From date of enrolment until week two of the programme	No fee due
Attendance from week three of registration	100% of tuition fee for Year One
Attendance from re-enrolment at the start of Year Two	100% of tuition fee for Year Two
Attendance from re-enrolment at the start of Year Three	100% of tuition fee for Year Three

Full and Part Time MRes, MPhil, PhD and Professional Doctorate programmes

Exceptional arrangements for Interruption of Studies

The annual tuition fee will be reduced by the daily rate for the number of days of interruption, as verified by the Graduate Board of Studies. For 2020.21 the academic calendar is 366 days.

Separate arrangements apply for interruption of study fee liability during the formal writing-up period. Please see Research Degree Writing-up and Assessment Fees document.

⁴ Please contact the MCh Course Administrator at Wrightington Hospital, on 01257 256408 or email mchcourse@wvl.nhs.uk to discuss payment arrangements.

Part Enrolled

For students who have had a period of part enrolment, registration will be taken from the point at which enrolment on programme was undertaken.
