4. Termination of this Licence Agreement

- 4.1 Unless the Student has made arrangements with the University for late arrival, this Licence Agreement will automatically terminate if the Student has not taken up residence within 4 days of the start of the Period of Residence and the Student will be liable for the Residence Fee up to and including that date;
- 4.2 The University may terminate this Licence Agreement at any time by serving a 28 day Notice period in writing on the Student if:
- i. the Student is in serious or persistent breach of any of the Student's obligations;
 - ii. the Student does not have status as a registered Student of the University which includes a Student taking an interruption of studies;

4.6 For the avoidance of doubt, the University will make vacated rooms available to other students for room exchanges, but room exchanges will not be treated as replacements and refunds of any Residence Fee will only be given where the void in the Residence caused by the Student's early departure has been filled and there is no loss to the University;

4.7 If this Licence Agreement is terminated early by either the University or the Student the University will refund a fair proportion of any pre-paid Residence Fee or Deposit after making any proper deductions to cover its losses. Payment will be made as soon as possible after the termination becomes effective but any pre-paid Residence Fee will only be refunded for the period where the void in the Residence, caused by the Student's early departure, has been filled and there is no loss to the University;

The University will give 24 hours notice of such viewings;
- 4.11 If a Student formally withdraws from study, his/her liability for the Residence Fee continues for a period of 28 days from the date of receipt of formal notification of withdrawal by the Accommodation Office. Formal notification of withdrawal should be submitted via the Accommodation portal. If the room is let to an eligible and acceptable Student of the University, who is not already a party to a Licence Agreement within the liability for the remaining Residence Fee will cease the day the room is re-let. Where the Residence Fee is paid in advance, a proportion of the Residence Fee will be returned, based on the Period of Residence remaining after the date of termination;

Where the loss, damage or breakage in or around the Residence cannot be attributed to an individual it will be charged equally among the occupants of the Residence.
- 6.3 The University may choose to deduct any charge levied under this Agreement from your Deposit.
- 6.4 If the University chooses to deduct any charge from your Deposit, then you must pay to the University enough to bring the Deposit back up to its full amount within 14 days.
- 6.5 As soon as reasonably practical after the Period of Residence ends the University will repay the balance of the Deposit to the original person who made the payment without interest. However, the University may first deduct any outstanding Residence Fee, costs, expenses and charges due from you under this Agreement.
