

Gymnastics Taster Sessions

- Before joining our gymnastics programme, all new attendees must complete up to two taster sessions. These sessions allow our coaches to assess each child's ability and allocate them to the most suitable class.
- Taster session places are strictly limited and offered periodically.
- All children must be at least the minimum age for the activity when attending their first session.
- Taster session spaces can be booked from the date specified within the enquiry email until the day of the taster sessions.
- All children being enrolled must hold at least a casual membership at Edge Hill Sport prior to a child enrolling on a class. This can be processed either online or at reception.
- Children's activities enrolments and payments can be made online or at reception. Please visit our online shop (<https://www.edgehill.ac.uk/edgehillsport/online-bookings/>) for further information.
- If, after the taster sessions, you would like to continue with the Gymnastics lessons, then an Edge Hill Sport Gymnastics Membership (£5.00) is required.
- In addition, a British Gymnastics Recreational Gymnast membership (£24.00) is mandatory for insurance and registration. This must be purchase directly via the British Gymnastics website: <https://www.british-gymnastics.org/memberships>. Additional information that requested may include Edge Hill Sport delivers General Gymnastics and the membership type is Gymnast.
- Both memberships are payable annually and will expire 30 September.
- The remainder of the block fees will also be due. These fees must be paid no more than 1 day after the 2nd taster session.
- Block dates will be on our website <https://www.edgehill.ac.uk/departments/support/edgehillsport/childrens-activities/>.
- Block renewal reminders will be sent by email only.
