Overview:

The University Scholarship celebrates students who help to raise the profile of Edge Hill in a positive way through their exceptional contribution to the University. The award also recognises students who contribute to equal opportunities and diversity, rewarding notable contributions to equality in support of race, disability, gender, sexuality, religion, anti-poverty, anti-ageism, or any form of anti-discrimination.

Nominations will automatically be considered for the Adam Bell Scholarship, which recognises and celebrates students who make a significant contribution to the University community and/or who demonstrate qualities such as dedication, compassion to others, and resilience.

SECTION 4: NOMINATION STATEMENT. PLEASE DO NOT SUBMIT ANY SUPPORTING EVIDENCE.

A: Please describe and give examples of how the nominee has helped to raise the profile of Edge Hill in a positive way through their exceptional contribution to the University and/or made a significant contribution to the community of the University. Word limit 300.

B: Please describe and give examples of how the nominee has contributed to equal opportunities and diversity, rewarding notable contributions to equality in support of race, disability, gender, sexuality, religion, anti-poverty, anti-ageism or any form of anti-discrimination. Word limit 300.

Please note the panel DOES NOT expect examples for all.

C: Please describe and give examples of how the nominee demonstrates qualities such as dedication, compassion to others, and resilience. Word limit 300.

D: If you refer to job roles within your answer, please use the space below to briefly outline what each job role entails and whether it is paid or voluntary. Restrict your answer to 1 sentence per job role.
