Do you want to be challenged in how you think about religion?

Are you interested in the boundaries of religious belief and practice, and how it intersects with other aspects of society, such as education, the media, sexuality and politics?

The Faculty of Education will be hosting speakers from the world of Religion and/or Religious Education throughout the academic year. Topics include: Contemporary expressions of belief, Queer Theology, Textual study, Religion in Media and RE policy. Speakers will be critically analysing both religion and religious education as contested contemporary lived phenomena.

The series is free and open to all. School colleagues interested in Religious Education are most welcome, as are staff and students from across the University. Attendees are welcome to the Piazza building, Faculty of Education, Edge Hill University, Ormskirk, L39 4QP, from 4.30pm On the day of the seminar to enjoy some refreshments and network.

Please book online at: ehu.ac.uk/religionnow where all confirmed speakers are announced.
