- ✓ Your language goals and why you want to improve your language skills
- ✓ Your preferred partner gender (if applicable)
- ✓ Your availability

Example Post

You may wish to post something like this:

Hello all! I am Kate and I am a second year student here at Edge Hill studying Business and Management. I studied Spanish at GCSE and would really like to start studying the language again and improving my conversational skills as I am planning to spend time in Spain when I graduate. I would really be interested in connecting with Spanish speakers who are interested in improving their English. I am free Wednesday afternoons from 2pm and would love to spend some time practising my Spanish and learning more about Spain. Please comment my post if you can help! Many thanks!
