

FOOD POVERTY CHANGING THE STORY

Hunger is increasingly becoming a mode of existence in the UK. Over half a million UK children live in families unable to provide a minimally acceptable diet. Refusal of the UK Government to recognise the existence of, and address food poverty has also resulted in food aid becoming institutionalised in the UK. The purpose of this event is to discuss and debate solutions to address food poverty to change the story of food poverty in the UK.

Includes Speakers:

Dr JOHN CATER

VICE CHANCELLOR OF EDGE HILL UNIVERSITY

PROF. MARTIN CARAHER

PROFESSOR OF FOOD & HEALTH POLICY

ROSIE OGLESBY

DIRECTOR OF FEEDING BRITAIN

Dr KATHLEEN MOONEY

SENIOR LECTURER IN NUTRITION & HEALTH

GERARD WOODHOUSE

LIVERPOOL COUNTY WARD LABOUR COUNCILLOR
& FOOD BANK MANAGER

ROBBIE DAVISON

DIRECTOR OF CAN COOK

14TH MARCH EDGE HILL UNIVERSITY
TECH HUB LECTURE THEATRE
CONFERENCE BEGINS AT 12PM.
LUNCH PROVIDED.

PLEASE REGISTER BEFORE 06/03/18.
CONTACT LEIGH@CANCOOK.CO.UK FOR DETAILS.