Important Notes

- You must check your module curriculum to make sure you are registered for the correct modules
- Examination timetables are published four weeks in advance. It is your responsibility to check the timetable for the correct date, time and venue of your examinations
- If you have any special requirements for examinations you must contact Inclusion Team, based in Catalyst as soon as possible. Without sufficient notice, it might not be possible to put arrangements in place
- You must bring your Unicard to all examinations
- If you cannot sit an examination or submit coursework due to circumstances outside your control, you must follow the advice set out in the University's policy for exceptional mitigating circumstances (EMC). For details and guidance please go to ehu.ac.uk/emc
- Details of how your classification is calculated are at ehu.ac.uk/resultdates
- If you have outstanding tuition fees you will not be permitted to attend the graduation ceremony and your certificate will be withheld
- You must register for graduation and order your robes within the specified deadlines. Failure to do so may result in you being prevented from attending the ceremony.

Deadlines

Absence from examination or non submission of coursework (EMC application):

You should submit your application within three days of the assessment being due and no later than the specific deadline published by your faculty. Deadline dates are listed on the Academic Registry web pages ehu.ac.uk/emc.

Requests to interrupt your studies: Go to ehu.ac.uk/interruption for details.

Requests to repeat the year: Submit your application by the deadline set by your faculty. Dates are normally in May, August and September. For more information please go to: ehu.ac.uk/repeatyear.

Appeals against your end of year results: These are published with your results. You cannot appeal in advance of the formal results notification.
