

Student Led Staff Awards: What students value

Edge Hill University students vote annually to celebrate the importance of excellent teaching, tutoring and general support. The Students' Union have been sector leaders on this front and have received recognition and grants from the NUS. This presentation will be a flavour of what students have valued in 2017 based upon thematic analysis of the evidence from all of the nominations received.

Rachel Arland

Vice President Academic Rep

Edge Hill University Students' Union